ANNOUNCEMENTS

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Life's Shop Window, Mammoth Five-Real Feature Film.

This remarkable story of high life is permeated with scenes that are not only heart appealing but truly thrilling as well. The book by Victoria Cross is familiar to all book lovers and the plot has been closely adhered to in the production, and playing in the lead is Claire Whitney, conspicuous in many of the big Pathe successes, having also played with the Vitascope all-star cast and the Biograph. To play the lead in Life's Shop Window has really been Miss Whitney's life ambition, and it was with joy that she received her appointment to play this delightful character creation, of which she made such a success. Playing opposite her is Stuart Holmes, a sterling actor whose splendid work has been noted in many of the biggest dramatic successes. Particularly this film of five reels is one of great beauty and the production is especially noteworthy on this account. Many other of the world's best offerings in feature productions are booked by the management of the Colonial and will be seen at early dates. Watch the papers for the dates. Prices for today are 25c and 50c, as usual.

Smith has provided the libretto. Robert B. Smith, the lyric and Victor Herbert the music. Those who have followed the career of the new bidder for stardom honors will not be surprised that so soon has a manager entered into a contract which calls for her to be presented as a star. John C. Fisher, the senior manager of the theatre, has produced "The Debutante" in the one who has the undertaking in charge and he has gathered together an organization to support Miss Dawn numbering more than one hundred people. Some of the principal members of the company are Will West, Frank Boone, Stewart Baird, Carl Gantvoort, Robert G. Pitkin, Thomas Reynolds, J. LOYALTY OF THE MOORS TO FRANCE AND THE SULTAN.

Manifested at Celebration of the Anniversary of the Prophet.

Paris, Feb. 1, 4:50 p. m.—A despatch to the Temps from Rabat, Morocco, says:

"The celebration of the anniversary of the Prophet was the occasion of a manifestation of the loyalty of the Moors to France and the sultan. General Lyauty, resident French governor of Morocco, received many of the chiefs of the tribes which recently have proclaimed their allegiance and their presence at the reception produced a marked effect on the Muslim population.

"The sultan, Mulai Yusef, refused the usual presents of money rendered by the tribes, saying that the population could make better use of their tributes by sending them to France for the relief of the wounded.

"After the ceremony a review of the native troops was held near the French camp and in close proximity to the detention camp, where a thousand German prisoners recently have arrived."

FIVE HOSTILE AIRSHIPS REPORTED OVER DOVER.

Were Driven Off by the Gunfire of the Forts.

London, Feb. 1, 5:05 p. m.—Five hostile airships are reported over Dover this evening, travelling eastward. They were fired at by the forts.

The police of London received orders to lower all blinds and the city works and electric light stations were notified to be ready to cut off illuminations at a moment's notice.

The five hostile airships, according to a telephone message from Dover, were driven off by the gunfire of the forts. They turned and sailed away, apparently not penetrating inland.

The Chinese government is planning to spend $10,000,000 for a number of high-power wireless stations.

HEALTHY HAIR, SOFT, FLUFFY AND LUSTROUS

Many women envy the pretty hair of their friends without ever inquiring the reason why their own is not as attractive. "Rats," pads and switches are far less assistance towards a fine head of hair than daily care and attention.

The natural secretions of the scalp often clog the pores and root glands until they cannot possibly carry out their functions. Ordinary combing and brushing does not get down to the real roots of the hair, and something more is needed to keep the hair healthy and scalp in health and vigor.

Parisian Sage has been recognized for many years as one of the most valuable hair tonic and is daily making new friends because of its undoubted efficiency, the ease with which it may be applied and its cheapness.

Faded, dull or lifeless hair is quickly restored to its natural beauty. Dandruff disappears like magic, while oiliness and stickiness vanish after a few applications, leaving the hair permanently strong, glossy, soft and beautiful.

Do not wait until your hair is in really bad condition before doing anything to keep it. Use Parisian Sage or any drug counter can supply you with Parisian Sage. It is such a helpful toilet necessity that you cannot afford to do without it.
